

Our Services

Business and Corporate Affairs:

Swan's Landing provides meals and special events for business and corporations. We can serve a group as small as 25 to 2,000. Whether it is a grand opening to the community to introduce your services, a company picnic, a holiday employee gathering, or a safety reward luncheon for company employees. We are willing to work with you to provide you a great meal at an affordable price. We are also available to assist with corporate event planning at no additional cost. We are available to travel to your selected site and we have the equipment to keep the food at the desirable temperature.

We have a tent, tables, chairs, linens and anything you need to provide you a delicious meal at our Swan's Landing Site. Our tent will be available starting May 1st through Oct. 15th, 2006, dine under the stars at Swan's Landing.

Event Management

We will sit down together and help you plan any event at no additional charge. Our staff has imaginative ideas and the knowledge to communicate with other experts to help to transform ideas into spectacular realities. We know that with hard work, meticulous planning, and knowledge of where to locate the needed supplies and talent implementation of any theme is obtainable. Give us an idea and let us surprise you with the décor, fresh flowers, and food presentation that will turn your event into one that you will always remember. Give us a chance to exceed your expectations.
