I do free wedding consultation. It takes me about two hours for the two of us to sit down while I type and organize your wedding from the time you have your pictures taken to the time the two of you leave your reception. When you leave my kitchen that day, you will have about six to eleven typed pages and you will know exactly what you are doing. Once everything is in writing, you will feel much better because you now know what all you need to think about and the order of events that take place on your wedding day. After that day, we will meet a couple of more times to make any changes you want made.

One of Swan's Landing's greatest strength is our friendly service. All our brides and grooms and their families are amazed how our staff go out of their way to meet any of the bride's requests on her wedding day. We want everything to move smoothly on your wedding day, and we are willing to do anything it takes to make everything happen in a timely fashion.

Swan's Landing has four floral designers who are absolutely terrific when it comes to meeting our bride's requests. We challenge you to look through books and find pictures of what you like and bring them to us. We can do it! If you do not have a picture, give us your ideas and watch us go with it. We want every wedding to be beautiful and unique. You will love your bridal flowers and the flowers and decorations we do for you at the church and the reception. We will take every floral arrangement from your wedding and use it again at the reception. This gives you more for your money. It is our goal to stay abreast of the latest floral designs. We love a challenge and we will go out of our way to give you the best and latest look in all floral designs.

When it comes to food and presentation, we can compete with the best. Our chefs are capable of cooking any foods you desire. If it is not on our list of foods, we can still do it. We have the equipment to keep foods hot, and I can guarantee the presentation will be beautiful. I have made it a point to buy the equipment and décor items that make presentation outstanding. This has been one reason why people are going with Swan's Landing.
